1. Ho Chi Minh is now considering a compromise with the French, an idea which is repugnant to many Viet Namese who, if such a move were made with Ho's approval, would rebel against his leadership.
As the return of Bao Dai seems increasingly likely, the possibility of a revolt among the people is increasing.
2. Tran Van Giau was ordered back to Indochina from Siam and assigned to bring under control the increasingly independent elements of Viet Nam leadership in the Cochin China area.
